

Embrace
Holy
Living

RE- FLECTING GOD

11/16/10 - His Pulpit Was The Cross

RG161110

Psalm 22:1-8

"My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" Though penned by David, these words are best remembered as being uttered from the cross by Jesus (Matthew 27:46).

Have you ever felt forsaken by God? Several months ago, John and Sarah received the phone call no grandparent ever wants to receive. Their four-year-old granddaughter had just been diagnosed with cancer. For an instant, their emotions kicked in as they began to feel that He had forsaken them. Then they remembered the last sermon preached by Jesus.

Jesus reminded those standing around the cross of the fulfillment of the prophecies. God was forsaking Jesus because He does not want to forsake us. We should take to heart the words that proclaim that we should trust in the Lord and let Him rescue us!

When devastating news comes to us, we can only trust in Him who tells us, "I will never leave you nor forsake you" (Josh. 1:5).

All Scripture quotations not otherwise designated are from the Holy Bible, New International Version(r) (NIV(r)). Copyright (c) 1973, 1978, 1984 by International Bible Society. Used by permission of Zondervan Publishing House. All rights reserved.

Copyright (c) 2011 by WordAction Publishing Company. All rights reserved.