Matthew 24:15-28

Jesus will return for his Church, but we do not know the day or the time. Jesus will come; we know that because he said so. At his returning Jesus will be revealed to everyone when he appears. In the same way we should not hide his light in our lives. People will see the difference Jesus makes in us.

Our family had not been Christian very long when my older sister discovered she was home alone. We had all gone in different directions before she became aware of the fact. My sister became frightened and thought that the rapture had taken place and she was left behind. Then my sister thought, "If the rapture had taken place I would not be here either because I am a Christian." With this thought her mind was at ease.

When Jesus comes, there will be no uncertainty about his coming. Every eye shall see him. It is up to us to be watchful and wait for his return. Luke chapter 12, verse 38 says, "It will be good for those servants whose master finds them ready, even if he comes in the middle of the night or toward daybreak".
