RE- FLECTING GOD

01/13/18 - He Is Coming!

Revelation 22:6017

Choose a few words that come to mind when you think about Christ's return: fear, joy, confusion, hope, doubt, gratitude, anticipation, dread, excitement. Is it hard to believe that Christ really is coming back? God has never broken a promise. He fulfills exactly what He proclaims. And God will send His Son back to earth for His bride.

If you have a relationship with Christ, you can be assured that you'll have the privilege of living forever in His kingdom. Though good works don't save us, we know that works are important. God desires that each of us engage in ministry. Faith without works is simply dead faith (see James 2:14).

Ministering to others is so important that God will reward each of us for what we've done. Is it easy to enjoy great praise and worship music on Sunday mornings, but harder to make time to visit someone in assisted living?

When our priorities are in alignment with Christ's, we find joy in serving, ministering, and doing good works in His name.
