RE- FLECTING GOD

06/10/17 - Your Hearts Were Hard

RG AUDIO 061017

Matthew 19:1-12

I never expected to be affected by divorce. My parents were married almost 49 years before my mother's death ended their life together. My in-laws were married for over 62 years before Mama died. Jodie and I have been married over forty years. Only three years into her marriage, however, my daughter said "I have a right to be happy, Daddy." I knew what was coming.

We try to soften the reality by creating euphemisms. "Your hearts were hard" softens to "irreconcilable differences." Adultery becomes an "affair." Whether physical and/or sexual, adultery is also emotional, and spiritual. Often the children of Israel committed spiritual adultery, breaking their covenant with God!

Your life may have been affected by divorce or other consequences of the curse of Adam's sin. You are not alone nor forgotten. There is grace to help; you may start afresh. Our daughter is now happily married again with two beautiful daughters of her own. Her faith has found a resting place!
