

The Son He Loves

Description

RG040910

Colossians 1:9-20

He was there in the beginning; He will be there at the end. He was the very Word of creation. Jesus is the summation of all history, the Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. His existence transcends and fills all creation.

Our minds cannot comprehend His greatness or fathom the depths of His wisdom and love. Yet, He became one of us, not to shame us but to save us. His defining symbol is not one of earthly authority or power, but a symbol of torture and death.

Without Jesus, life cannot hold together. He is the mortar of our destiny. Without Jesus, “the head of the body”, the Church is without life, wisdom, or direction. But with Him, by Him, and through Him, we have all these things and more.

In Him is the peace we were created for and still long for.
