RE- FLECTING GOD

12/10/13 - When All Will Bow

RG AUDIO 121013

Psalm 72:1-11

I love to be at a performance of the "Hallelujah Chorus" at the symphony. There is a full orchestra, the big voices, and then the moment when everyone stands. The power of that moment overwhelms me. I know it comes from a historical tradition, but do you know what I see? I see a preview of that moment in time when all people everywhere recognize that there is only one King of Kings and His name is Jesus. My heart flutters with excitement. And then it beats with fear and almost dread. What of these people who stand only out of homage to tradition and music excellence? What will happen to them?

Jesus came to bring people to God, and we are important members of His search and rescue team. Do you know someone who might be caught unprepared for that closing bow? What words and actions could you use to get them ready to bow for all the right reasons? Why don't you find a way to share them? Time is running out.
