Psalm 19:1-14

Can you remember how many skinned knees, cuts, or bruises you got as a kid? No? I canâ??t either. Itâ??s likely, however, that we can recall hurtful words we have received through the years. Words can carry a lasting punch.

- God uses words to create. Light and life originate from the mighty proclamation, â??Let there beâ?• (Gen. 1:3, 6).
- God uses words to call. â??Do not be afraid, Abram. I am your shield, your very great rewardâ?
  (Gen. 15:1).
- God uses words to condemn. â??Take your evil deeds out of my sight; stop doing wrong. Learn to do right; . . . I will turn my hand against youâ?• (Isa. 1:16b-17a, 25a).
- God also uses words to redeem. Redemption is conveyed in Godâ??s innumerable promises to repentant Israel. It is fully expressed in the Word (logos) (Jn. 1:1-5), the living expression of God incarnate in Jesus.

May our words be graced with thoughtful reflection on Godâ??s truth, awareness of our shortcomings, and reverence for the One who gave us the remarkable ability to express His redeeming word.
