Psalm 104:1-23

Fashion is big news. The Internet, magazines, newspapers are filled with photos, headlines and articles describing creative designs, beautiful fabrics and rich colors. Celebrities pose at social events and on “red carpets” proudly displaying their clothing and expensive jewels.

The Psalmist told us that God is clothed in splendor and majesty; God would top any “best-dressed” list. We see the amazing creation power of God. Not limited to lengths of fabric, God wraps himself in light!

This Psalm reminds us of God's greatness and God's provision. Our most beautiful mansions dwarf beside God's residence – the heavens. Our fastest race cars are no match for the winds and chariots of clouds. God created the very foundations of the earth.

Take a moment today to walk outside and consider God's handiwork. Praise God, the Almighty Creator who is clothed in dazzling light. Commit yourself to trust in God for your daily needs.
