RE- FLECTING GOD

03/07/15 - Beyond The Blue

Hebrews 11:1-3, 32-40

A 13-hour flight to Asia offers little or no window distraction. At over 30,000 feet of altitude there is nothing to see but carpets of clouds and endless extensions of blue. However, the small screen facing the passenger promises the exact arrival time; a short movie shows the terminal, immigration stations and baggage carousels.

If a flying metal tube propelled by fuel engines can be so assuring in giving information to people seemingly still in the middle of nowhere, how much more God the Creator of all? He guarantees a safe and secure arrival at our final destination, even when the window of life limits vision or is occasionally fogged by fear and anxiety.

Faith prompts us to have total confidence and trust in the One who synchronizes the movements of planets while controlling the flights of eagles, sparrows and butterflies.

Remember, "The Lord himself goes before you and will be with you; he will never leave you nor forsake you. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged" (Deuteronomy 31:8).
