Isaiah 5:8-19

The Guinness Book of World Records is a collection of people from around the world trying to prove they're the best at something—anything from the longest career as a flight attendant to the oldest performing clown to the most T-shirts worn at once; you name it.*

Mark Angermayer proved he grew the largest peach in the world in 2016 with his prize fruit weighing 1.68 pounds and measuring 4.6 inches in diameter. A lot of people go to great lengths to prove something.

We can be assured that God also holds a world record. He is the most holy, most wise, most powerful, most loving, and most just. The proof is simply in the fact that He is. God is God. He doesn't have to prove anything, but Isaiah 5:8-19 reveals that He will be exalted by His justice, and He will be proved holy by His righteous acts.

Let's commit to prove our love for Him by living a life of obedience.
