RE- FLECTING GOD

01/30/18 - Our Faithful Shepherd

RG AUDIO 013018

Isaiah 40:1-11

The good news carries more than just tender words for those in crisis. The reality of God's presence levels the playing field, shoulders the load, and treads on through life. Isaiah states that the Lord fills the valleys, levels the mountains, straightens curves, and smooths rough places. This does not mean all mountaintops are ahead, or that we will never face the valley. It does indicate that His presence is supreme over the changing geography of my life. I can choose to walk a straight line for His companionship overrides the urgency of my struggles. His company is higher and better than an easy road.

We see a lovely companion keeping guard over our daily realities. The news that He walks with us inspires the prophet to shout!

As you look at the scenery of your current situation, understand that our Shepherd will carry you above the twists and corners and lead you daily to green pastures.
