Matthew 22:23-33

In Matthew 22, the Sadducees were trying to trick Jesus. However, Jesus knew who He was, responding, "I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." He also knew where He came from and where He was going. If you don't understand where you are going it is hard to get there and easy to get lost.

There are lots of examples of modern-day Sadducees, ways that the enemy tries to trick us into forgetting who we are, whose we are, and where we are going. The best way to know who you are: spend time with God. Jesus knew the scriptures, so should we. Jesus spent time with His Father, so should we. Jesus knew where He was going. If we follow Christ, we also know that heaven is our final home.

Between now and our entry into heaven we will meet lots of situations that will try to trick us. If we are daily holding on to Jesus then we will be able to see what is happening and remember that we are children of God, heading towards heaven.
