Romans 5:12-21

When faced with the challenges of life, we can often feel overwhelmed and insignificant. We may feel powerless to bring solutions to the problem. Can one person make a difference? Absolutely.

Through the actions of Adam and Eve, the human race lost their right relationship with God the Father. Generations upon generations were left without the hope of salvation. This separation felt beyond repair. What could possibly be done to restore our relationship with God?

Scripture teaches us that God reached down to people and began the plan to restore His prized creation back to himself. It is by the amazing grace of God the Father, the everlasting love of Jesus, and the redemptive power of the Holy Spirit that the plan came to completion. People now had the way and means to reach out to God and begin a new relationship with God the Father. Jesus' sacrifice on the cross provided an amazing grace for those who desired to be restored to God the Father. For once we were lost, but now we are found.
