Hebrews 9:19-28

The immensity of Christ's sacrifice on Calvary begs every superlative. It has no equal. It can never be excelled. It encompasses all people for all time. His sacrifice is unrepeatable because it is complete.

The circumstances of Jesus' sacrifice on the cross cannot be reproduced. God came in human flesh. He is "the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!" (John 1:29). There will never be another like Him, neither need there be. Unlike sacrifices offered under the Hebrew law, those repeated annually, monthly, weekly, even daily; Jesus' death for our sin on the cross dealt fully with our need. Destroying not only sin's deadly penalty, but breaking sin's stubborn power over the human mind and will.

Today we join with multitudes around God's throne and sing, "Worthy is the Lamb, who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and praise!" (Revelation 5:20).
