

Walking Side By Side

Description

Psalm 23:1-6

Imagine the continual terror of perpetual insecurity. Our Shepherd gives us everything we need to provide assurance of security. Our Shepherd ensures that we lack nothing we really need. Do you know God as your provider?

It means the felt presence of the Shepherd walking side by side with us in every situation. We find that place where the winds of change and disruption subside, and all is quiet in the serenity of peace. Do you know God as your ever present strength and comfort?

We live as amphibians; we have one foot in the fast-moving waters of time, experiencing incessant change. We have another in the emerging world of eternity. The Shepherd points to the banquet hall of heaven and assures you of a place He is preparing for you.

To read these words is to step from the freeway of life and stand in the gallery to view a masterpiece. In vivid color, it reveals our relationship with the Shepherd. As we leave the gallery to return to the hustle of life, remember; it's all true. You are loved beyond words.

Author: David Felter

Date Created

2025/03/23