

Believe In Faith

Description

Psalm 112:1-10

A few months after my teenage daughter received her driver's license, she rode in the passenger seat and had an epiphany. She noticed the beautiful plains, flowers, gardens, and landscape. She exclaimed, "I have driven this road so many times, but I never noticed how beautiful this place was until I was a passenger!"

Although I am thankful she paid attention to her driving, I realize that we are so focused on what we are doing that we miss the beauty surrounding us.

When Paul wrote to the church in Galatia, he confronted them about their pursuit of faith. They were so focused on the things of the world, even religion, that they missed out on the beauty of Christ and a relationship with Him.

Devoting our attention and belief to God will lead us to recognizing Him in our lives. Our faith will take shape, and in our belief, we will find righteousness in Christ. Having faith is not natural; believing in something we cannot see, but through Him, we experience something divine, a faith beyond understanding.
